St. Michael and All Angels Day

Sunday, September 29, is St. Michael and All Angels Day on our Lutheran Church calendars, as it is also for churches of the Anglican communion and Roman Catholics. Orthodox churches celebrate the day on November 8.

Since the date falls on a Sunday this year, we will take the opportunity to celebrate it and joyfully to give thanks for the ministry of angels.

The day is also known as “Michaelmas” (pronounced MIK-al-mas) from a shortening of “Michael’s Mass” in the same way “Christmas” is a shortening of “Christ’s Mass”.

Michaelmas is used to name the first term of the academic year at many education institutions in England, Ireland and Wales as well as being used to mark days in areas of business and law. A wealth of traditions is connected with this day, including eating a goose.

Dr. Martin Luther teaches us to pray in both his morning and evening prayers given in our Catechism,

“Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me.”

Luther’s right hand helper, Philipp Melancthon, wrote a hymn for this day, #522 in our Lutheran Service Book. Included is this stanza about our angel guards:

“They never rest nor sleep as we;
their whole delight is but to be

With Thee, Lord Jesus, and to keep Thy little flock, Thy lambs and sheep.”

Come to worship as we remind ourselves-- and have the joy of joining our thanksgiving with that of the angels of heaven!

THE FLOWER CHART is available to donate flowers for our Sunday celebrations.

Donations may be made in thanksgiving for a special event, or in memory of loved ones, in honor of someone, or for any reasons to praise God. Order forms are hanging on the office door.

Also, we want to remind you these are your flowers and you may take them with you following the service.

CRAFT

Our Surge program has begun for the 24-25 school year. Pastor Bauman is offering a High School class during the evening as the younger kids do their own lesson after we all gather for dinner. We show a short movie and have a discussion on the evening's topic and play games and make a craft that keeps with the theme of the evening.

It's a fun filled two hours. If you know any kids ages 4-15 go to the Immanuel website at immanuel.lutheranbartlett.com and you can get information, registration forms and a printable schedule for the year.

On Sunday, August 11th Immanuel held it's end of Summer Potluck picnic. We were blessed with a beautiful day. It was nice to be outdoors and enjoying the sunshine. We were very thankful considering what the weather can be like at this time of the year.

A big thanks to John Moninger, Sally Hover and Bev Bayes who helped to make the afternoon a success! Also a thank you to all who contributed to the delicious food and fellowship.

We hope you join us for our next potluck dinner coming on Oct. 13th.
